

You're Nothing To Me

MUSICAL LIVE YOUR DREAMS * Music/Lyrics by J. SOLIS

1 Oh how nice all that sissy kind of people - ha -
No idea of how to rule and how to stand
Let me show what you fear, cause in this world your soul is mine – that's the deal.

2 So the question is: what is real – what you think or what you feel the fact of real force, the deep dark and only one ist that every thought – every thought of your fear – just keeps making me strong

Ref You're nothing to me, just a worthless little worm

Wasting time from the day you were born

Creeping around ridiculously...means being lucky? Living happily?

You're nothing to me, just a needless piece of crap

Just soiling my world with every move, with every step

You know my will is your fate – no change, too late.

Posings

3 Oh how sweet - still so many believe they are strong – mmmh so just try on and on – you'll see, you are wrong.
It could be so easy for you to do – I may be bad, but I'm not lying to you.

4 One day you will see – that there's no difference between you and me
You try to be good – but what if I would not exist?
How could the beauty be without the beast?
